June Covers Her First Election

By: June Hart

I arrived home at 11:30 P.M. of Tuesday April 18th, directly from the victory party at Bunker Hill, and greeting me over the air from WLSD was...."and in Niles the Active Citizens Ticket was swept into office, they are incumbents Angelo Marcheschi, Edward Berkowsky, and candidate Richard Harczak"....

For all the candidates, and all the workers Tuesday 18th commenced at 5:30 A.M. At the Active Citizens headquarters, Bunker Hill, we chatted with Bud and Diane Hanson (Diane is campaign chairman, womens division) Ben Mankowsky and Veda Kauffman. In between the telephone ringing we asked if there was a good turn out? "Light so far." ting-a-ling the phones kept whirring. We asked, 'what was that?" "People needing conveyance to the precincts," explained Ben Mankowsky as he hauled himself out of his chair. "This will be my 26th pick-up and I don't mind at all" he smiled and hurried out. Ting-a-ling..."God the votes are beginning to get heavy," smiled Diane. Ting-a-ling....Baby sitter.....Ting-a-ling...checking. Val Marcheschi brought us coffee, "Are you nervous?" She answered, "A little."

I begged a ride with that good looking police officer Frank Stankowicz as he continued his day long tour of the 21 precints. We stopped at precinct 4 the home of Police Chief Emrikson and chatted with his charming wife Joan and her co-workers Jean Hill, Frances Pawelek, Elsie Peck, (wife of trustee Keith Peck) Goldye Maslovitz, and Bette Mittelbrun. They described the polling as "heavy some"

Leske, Provenzano Are Park Winners

ACT PARTY WINS BY 2-1 VOTE

Triumphant Trio

The triumphant trio, Richard Harczak, Angelo Marcheschi and Edward Berkowsky raise their hands in victory after the final returns came in Tuesday night. The three village trustee candidates won by a 2 to 1 margin in an off-year election which saw about 5,000 voters go to the polls.

Leske Big Winner ; Mike By 165 Votes

Park incumbent Jack Leske and newcomer Mike Provenzano won election to Niles Park District for 6 year terms in Tuesday's election. Leske led the runner-up candidate by a 3 to 2 margin leading in 14 precincts, with a total vote of 3,366, the highest ever received by a park candidate.

Jack Leske

In the only upset of Tuesday's elections Mike Provenzano eeked out a 2,279 to 2,112 vote victory over incumbent Steve Chamerski, the Niles Park president who was the leading exponent to save Tam O'Shanter Golf Course during the past years.

Mike Provenzano

While Chamerski was defeated he nevertheless was runner-up at 8 polls and the leader at one poll contrasted to Provenzano's leading in 1 and runner-up in 7. Fourth candidate Aaron Michaelson won 3 polls at the far north end of the village.

Harczak Leads All Candidates

In the most decisive off-year election in the last ten years the incumbent-dominated Act Party won a 2 to 1 victory over the Niles Caucus Party in Tuesday's village election.

Led by first-time candidate and well-known businessman Richard Harczak the ACT Party won the south end of the village by about 3 a 3 to 2 margin and then clobbered their opponents from 2 to 1 to as high as 10 to 1 at the north end of the village.

While the victory was far less than the almost 5 to 1 margin Mayor Nick Blase and his running mates won last year (the week after the All America award was announced) it followed the vote pattern set in recent years by Blase and his followers. While running a fairly close race up to Oakton Street, the decisive north end of town, which comprises the newer residents in Niles, is where the frosting is placed on the cake.

In precinct 19 at 8901 Ozanam the ACT Party's top candidate outpolled the Caucus' high vote candidate by 154 to 12. This was the same poll which Niles' Mayor Blase piled up a decisive vote in his 100 plus victory over Richard Wessellim the Democratic township committeeman race last year.

High vote-getter Richard Harczak, perhaps the most well-known businessman in Niles, led all candidates in 19 of the 21 precincts. Incumbent Ang Marcheschi and Ed Berkowsky each led in one precinct, Berkowsky in his home area while Marcheschi won the Ballard St. poll.

Ed Mitchell led or tied for the lead on the Caucus ticket in 12 precincts while Erich Buck, who outpolled Mitchell's vote total, won or tied in 9 precincts.

Sebastian Lists Traffic Rules For Bicyclists

Last year in Illinois more than 2,000 young people were injured and 27 killed in auto-bicycle traffic accidents, John T. Sebastian, Chairman of the Niles Safety Council reported.

A common misunderstanding of traffic rules, as they relate to the operation of bicycles in traffic is that bicyclists mistakenly follow the same rule that governs pedestrians. Because pedestrians walk on the left side where there is no sidewalk bike riders think they should also ride on the left side in traffic.

Chairman Sebastian emphasized that bicycles are subject to the same traffic rules as all other vehicles. The first rule for bicycles: Keep to the right at all times and ride close to the right-hand curb or side of the road. Car drivers can anticipate the actions of bike riders when the bikes follow the general rules of traffic.

If bicyclists follow one set of rules and motorists another, the result is confusion which can and does result in collisions between bicycles and cars.

Chairman Sebastian listed the following rules for safe bike riding:

* Keep to the right and close to the right curb or side of the road.

* Never ride after dark unless necessary and then only if the bike has both a headlight and taillight or a reflector as required by law.

* Obey all traffic laws, signs and signals.

* Keep brakes, steering mechanism, horn and other safety devices in good order.

* Do not ride with two on a bike.

* Learn and use hand signals for turns and stops.

* Never hitch onto a truck, car or other moving vehicle.

* Do not speed, race or weave in and out of traffic.

* Never ride two or more abreast in the street or on the sidewalk.

* Avoid busy streets and give automobiles the right-of-way.

* Keep both hands on the handle bars except to signal a turn or stop.

GOP Ladies To Hear Robert J. Stein

Members of the Maine Township Republican Woman's Club are very fortunate to have Robert J. Stein, Vice President of Flick-Reedy Corporation address them at their April meeting. Mr. Stein will talk to the group under the title "...Provide for Common Defense and General Welfare!..." Within this title, he will probe in depth this wording in Article I, Section 8, of the U. S. Constitution, to determine, as nearly as possible what the founding fathers who wrote the Constitution meant by this phrase — to inquire what limitations, if any, were proscribed by them —and finally to question whether or not Congresses since that time and particularly in the past 3 or 4 decades have over-reached their constitutional authorities.

Mr. Stein has stressed his desire for the participation of the entire group in this discussion and has suggested the following reading material for preparation: "Journal of the Constitutional Convention" by James Madison; "The Federalist Papers", by James Madison, Alexander Hamilton and John Jay; and "To Secure These Blessings", by Saul K. Padover.

The meeting will be held Friday, April 21, at 1:00 p.m., at the West Park Field House, 651 Wolf Road, Des Plaines. All members are encouraged to bring their friends, and anyone needing transportation contact Mrs. C. F. Dahlquist, 824-5730. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Elmer Graebner and Mrs. Dale R. Fahnestock.

Leaning Tower YMCA Offers Charm Courses

Get the beauty habit. That's the word from Grace Peters. She's the instructor for the Leaning Tower YMCA charm courses for teens and pre-teens. When asked what she meant by the "beauty habit," Grace replied, "The beauty habit is a way of doing things—all kinds of ordinary things like sitting, standing, walking, talking, listening—in the prettiest way possible, until the pretty way becomes so much a part of you that you can't do things any other way. This is the "beauty habit."

Girls may choose either of two courses beginning on Thursday, April 20. The class from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. is for seventh and eighth grade girls, and the evening class is open to high school girls. Each course considers the specific problems of the age group and plans for future beauty development.

The younger girls learn and practice complexion care, learn how to care for and style their own hair, and learn to understand that beauty comes from within themselves. The evening class meets at 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. and the girls learn to apply make-up for a fresh, natural look, learn to develop a look-alive attitude and personality, and discuss how to get along with the two groups that high school girls—parents and boys.

Grace Peters, the instructor, has a solid background as a model, fashion coordinator, and college trained teacher. Many local women and girls know her from her many guest appearances on television and her programs in the community.

Fees for the ten week course are $16.00 for non-Y members and $10.00 for members of the Leaning Tower Y. For additional information call 647-8222

Hi!... You're On The Hartline

Vocations - Want to be a nurse? We visited with Nilesites Karen Young and Robbin Baker in their rooms at Mount Sinai Hospital School of Nursing in Chicago. We sat in a comfortable chair in a pleasant room (each student is assigned her own room) while Karen stretched out on her bed, her neck and shoulders supported by her cushioned study rest. We noted a radio, books, a dresser, books, syringes, family and boy friend photographs, a record player, records, books, and the pretty pretties that made the room so feminine.

The student nurse wears a nurses uniform and cap. While in uniform she wears no jewelry, save a watch. Her hair must be neat and off the forehead and shoulders. The uniform covers her knees, her make-up is light and she does not wear nail varnish.

The study day commences early and her courses include: Behavioral Science, Communications, Nursing 101, Normal Nutrition, Medical-Surgical Nursing, Biology, Pharmocology, Theropeutic Nutrition, Public Health, Psychiatric Nursing, Maternal-Child Nursing, Gynecologic Nursing, Child Nursing and Dynamics of Nursing.

The student nurse is encouraged to use leisure hours after work, study and clinical practice, for personal and cultural development in company with her fellow students. We asked Karen how she employed her leisure hours. She plays volley ball, and attends a ceramics class, and has currently enrolled for instruction in self defense in the art of judo. Karen has a number of exotic ashtrays with accompanying ceramic based lighters she designed in her ceramics class. Mixed dances are planned with the local colleges to celebrate students' birthdays. Students and dates are invited to a Spring Dinner Dance, which is usually held in a Chicago hotel or club. On Friday afternoon through Sunday evening, students are free to return home if they want to, for a spell with their families.

We met girls from Chicago, Skokie, and Woodstock, Illinois, and many from further afield. They were busy washing and setting their hair, talking about their dates, and modeling mini dress wear and underwear. Gay and full of pranks, many said that they had chosen nursing as a career after serving as nurses aids during their high school years. One girl who was on an army scholarship said that she hoped to travel through the army employing her nursing qualifications. Robbin Baker hopes to serve in the obstetric area, while Karen Young is vastly interested in surgical nursing.

We asked about romance and intern, and the girls immediately discussed a certain intern's blue eyes, another one was described as adorable but, he's spoken for, and so on. They all agreed that at Mount Sinai they met doctors and interns from all over the world, and it was interesting, fascinating. At the present time, during the first semester of their training, they spend one day (two halves) per week with the patients.

Before we left for home we had coffee with the girls in the cafeteria, we asked, "Have any of you had a change of heart since taking this course?" and they replied, "Oh no, this is a three year course and we intend to see it through." Karen Young is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, 7044 W. Kedzie. She is a graduate of Niles West High School, and a former runner up

Resurrection High School Presents "Twelve Angry Women"

The 1967 school play at Resurrection High School, 7500 West Talcott, Chicago will be Reginald Rose's "Twelve Angry Women".

The play will run for the last two consecutive weekends in April. The time for the April 21, 22, 28, and 29 performances will be 7:30 PM. On April 23 and 30, the play will be presented at 2:30 PM.

The 24 students chosen from the sophomore, junior and senior classes at Resurrection have been split into two different casts. Each girl will portray a member of a jury as it meets to decide the case of a teen-ager accused of the murder of his father. The plot revolves around the attempts of a lone juror to sway the other members of the panel to her side.

As the temperature rises and tempers flare, the crowded juryroom becomes the battleground for "Twelve Angry Women."

The play, an adaptation of Rose's "Twelve Angry Men" was chosen because of its timeliness in view of recent trial proceedings and Supreme Court decisions on the right of fair jury trial.

The play is being produced under the direction of drama teacher Mrs. Patricia Muradian. Tickets at $1.50 a seat may be obtained at the door.

Book Muse

by Mr. "M"

SOMETHING FANCY. I had just come on duty. I took off my coat, sat down, looked down—then looked up.

"They referred me to you," the lady said; "they said Albert Camus's "The Stranger" would be your cup of tea. Do you think he was influenced by Jean Paul Satre's philosophy?

We talked. I helped a little (I hope!) and she left.

"Philosophy" I said to myself, "How would you rephrase that tight little definition you learned some yesterdays ago, in school?" Let's try.

For most of us philosophy is a subject withdrawn from common use, or else it is the substance of comic characters or the prose-skeleton on which the meat of a beer commercial is hung. Why it bakes bread. It makes out the world and makes it manageable. It is the way we see things we could never see before. It locates sources of value. It touches the hem of the triple goddess of truth, goodness and beauty. It is man thinking up purposes and thinking towards purposes. It is the golden thread of wilful wisdom man uses to escape the labyrinth of ignorance. Eventually it is wrong or inadequate or both. But right there is another source of man's thinking strength. Philosophy is the contract man makes with himself, his fellows, and the universe. It may be open for re-examination by any of the parties without prior warning, and yet during negotiations it remains in force. It is the ultimate publisher's contract behind all the books that have or ever will have the power to change the world.

Well, I guess that's a pretty fancy philosophical definition of philosophy.

A LITTLE LESS FANCY. In January of this year fifty concerned mothers registered fifty "Knee-Hi" members of the Niles Juvenile set in the library Pre-School Story Hour. With great religiousity every Tuesday morning and afternoon, the young ones have come in to the sessions of tale-spinning. Mixed into the session this year have been two movie showings (which mama was also invited to attend) and an Easter Party. During one of the movie showings, the little ones vocally accompanied the "tick, tick, tock" of the cuckoo clock on the screen.

These meetings are important because they give the pencil-weights their first experiences in other than mother oriented activities, an introduction to group participation and a peep into the book world that will be all around them for the rest of their life.

If you will excuse the library a note of egotism, may we say that the outer symbol of good attendance certainly must point to success in this activity.

Keep coming little ones. Keep hearing about the dreams of the past and may it merge with your dreams of the future.

A JOY IN THE VIEWING. The beautiful Renoir painting gifted to the library by her friends in the Greenwood Estates Homeowners Association in memory of our Mayor's wife, Mrs. Nicholas Blase.

A FINAL NOTE. Yes, there will be a Summer Reading Club for the Juvenile Set, although full plans have not yet been made. Please be patient with us and watch your local papers for its announcement and method.

Notre Dame Melodons Present Concert

On Friday, April 21 at 8:15 P.M. the Melodons of Notre Dame High School will present their annual concert, Music for Moderns.

The Melodons a 20 piece stage band, have compiled an enviable record for themselves over the past years. Besides consistently winning the "Best of Show" award at the Chicagoland Stage Band Festival, they have been highly praised by many of the leading professional musicians in the jazz field.

They have been guests of the Collegiate Jazz Festival at the University of Notre Dame for the past 8 years. This year at the festival the band was lauded by pianist Herbie Hancock, trumpeter Donald Bird and composers William Russo and Lalo Schifrin.

Highlighted on the concert program will be music for big band in many different styles ranging from the swing of Count Basie, a touch of Kenton and the modern sounds of Archie Shepp. Several arrangements by present and former members of the band will be performed Featured soloists will include Jim McNeely on piano, Nick Talarico on trombone, Jim Fesl on alto sax and Vic LoVerde on trumpet.

This year the special guest artist with the band will be vocalist Laurie Johnson. Miss Johnson sang for three years with the Les Brown Band of Renown, appeared on many west coast TV shows and in clubs such as Dino's. She is currently featured in various clubs in the Chicago area.

The Melodons under the direction of the Rev. George Wiskirchen, C.S.C., will be assisted in the concert by special lighting effects provided by the technical staff of the Jugglers, the school dramatic organization, under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Markos, C.S.C.

Father Wiskirchen, head of the music department, is highly recognized in the field of educational jazz. Besides teaching at the Eastman School of Music during the summer session and his writing and reviewing for Down Beat magazine, he travels extensively as a judge and clinician from coast to coast.

An added feature to this years concert will be an art painting and sculpture. The art show opens at 7:30 p.m. and will be available during the intermission and after the concert.

Music for Moderns will be held in the school auditorium at 7655 Dempster St. in Niles. Tickets will be available at the door.

St. Mary Seminary To Present Carmina Burana

St. Mary of the Lake Seminary (Niles campus) announces its fourth annual concert. The Seminary concert choir, composed of seminarians from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary (Mundelein and Niles campuses) and the finest male and female voices from various choirs in the Chicago community, accompanied by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, all under the direction of Rev. Stanley Rudcki, will present a program of three concert pieces in Orchestra Hall on Friday, May 12, 1967, at 8:15 p.m.

Father Rudcki has conducted the Seminary concert choir and the Chicago Symphony in Handel's MESSIAH in 1964, in Poulenc's GLORIA and Honegger's KING DAVID in 1965, and on May 8th of last year, REQUIEM by Giuseppe Verdi. In the May 11, 1966 issue of the Chicago Daily News, Donal J. Henahan said of last year's concert:

The performance of Verdi's REQUIEM at Orchestra Hall had both the quality and the vigor to keep the listener engaged from start to finish. It was a surprisingly powerful REQUIEM.

This year's concert promises to be even more exhilarating than last year's. The program includes VIOLIN CONCERTO IN G MINOR by Max Bruch which will be performed by Francois D'Albert; the Midwestern Premier of Leonard Berstein's CHICHESTER PSALMS; and Carl Orff's lively and stimulating CARMINA BURANA. Featured in the Carmina will be solos by the accomplished soprano Miss Carolyn Smith-Meyer and the baritone Mr. Harvey Hicks. Tickets and further information can be obtained from the Seminary at the above address.

Back to Bunker Hill. It was 6:00 P.M. on the nose as we entered the room. Everything was ready, tally sheets, Bud Hanson with the adding machine, Diane and Ben Mankowsky with their hands hovering near the phones, and a gentleman complete with chalk standing at the ready close to the huge blackboard, which bore the names of the candidates and all the numbers of the precincts.

I grabbed Veda Kauffman explaining to her that this was my first election, the excitement was getting me and..... Veda handed me a cup of coffee as people began to crowd the room. "I and my telephone girls spent all day yesterday and today asking people to go out and vote." It was Veda explaining things to me. "We tell them to call us if they need conveyance, and we will babysit if that is needed.

One voter was challenged and evicted. You see, an outside worker can help in the campaign but he cannot vote in Niles if he is not a resident, registered voter."

Ting-a-ling..."Quiet please." The results had started to come in. I found myself smoking everybody's cigarettes, and somebody drank my coffee. The man at the blackboard was chalking in the results, "Quiet ch..king in the results, "Quiet...." Slowly, too slowly it seemed, the board began to fill with the results, Marcheschi – 155, Berkowsky – 154, Harczak – 160, Honold – 54, Mitchell – 52, Buck – 66. Again and again and again.... The Action Ticket was swept into office.

Over to the Caucus Party headquarters again, was a little quieter there as they surveyed their board holding the results showing Erich Buck leading their votes. Mandy Honold said, "The votes given to the Caucus Party prove that the people have been discouraged with some aspects of Village administration. We will congratulate the Active Citizen people." Mr. Erick Buck said, "A certain humor is if you still smile. I do not feel a loser because I wish the victors real luck and God's guidance to do the very best to serve the community." Mr. Mitchell reiterated his former statement.

Back to Bunker Hill. It was crowded. Cameras clicked and the phone still rang and rang to announce the Park Board election results. It was Jack Leske and Mike Provenzano.

I saw food and realized I was hungry. While munching I talked with Mr. Marion Krawczyk, Captain precinct 21 Golden Acres, residing at 9917 Warren Road. "Out of 281 people, 30 came out to vote," he said. "They gripe, but don't vote. Please make mention in the paper that we feel they should come out and vote regardless of their preference, just so we know that we have people in the village who are interested in Village government."

Mr. Bob Mack of 7359 W. Breen waved a telegram, "I sent it at 12 o'clock noon, "because I knew they'd win."

Ethel Marcyan, of Down the Street, fresh from her trip in Europe, "I'm so happy. These three men have made themselves a part of us, truly representing the people. They make all our problems their problems.

Victorious Jack Leske smiling quietly said that he was glad to be back. "A lot of work has to be done in the next few years so that the Park District can gain the stature it deserves."

Park Commissioner Gerald Sullivan noted that it was the passing of an era – Steve Chamerski – "No one gave more or himself than Steve did. I feel that Mr. Leske will be the president of the Park Board."

Victorious Mike Provenzano, "It feels so good, to know somebody likes you. It's wonderful, I'm human so I know I'll make mistakes, but I'll try and do the very best I can."

Victorious Ang Marcheschi, "I am very appreciative of the confidence expressed by the voters. I will do everything in my power to represent them to the best of my ability and always with their interest at heart." Son Tom, "It's wonderful, I may some day try for office myself. I feel very proud, and after all the hard work it's nice to have it over."

Victorious Ed Berkowsky, "I feel wonderful. We have a great responsibility to carry on with the goals we have set for Niles people during the past 4 years. It is apparent that the people of Niles will not tolerate mediocracy, negativeness, or hategripers.

Victorious Dick Harczak, "I'm elated, I feel we were the best qualified individuals on the ballot because of integrity and civic drive. We want to see our Niles and its people prosper."

Sons Ronnie 13 and Doug 9-1/4 "We are so proud of Dad. You know we helped him in his campaign."

It was a wonderful day. I learned much and so now happily to bed 5:30 A.M.

Named To Dean's List

Peter B. Kleeboug, 9314 Marion Ave., Morton Grove, was placed on the third quarter Dean's Honor Roll at St. Benedict's College in Atchison with an average of 3.19 out of a possible 4.00. He is in his sophomore year.

St. Benedict's College, founded in 1858, is a four-year liberal arts institution for men, operated by the monks of the Order of St. Benedict. This school year the enrollment was 1,085 students.

Announce Garden Club Officers For Coming Year

From all indications, the coming year looks to be one filled with various activities for the members of the Garden Club of Niles. This year the following officers have been elected and Board members selected to serve the Club: President, Mrs. A. Geis; First Vice President, Mrs. R. Larson; Second Vice President Mrs. H. Kloss; Recording Secretary, Mrs. P. Hilson; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. F. Dedekind; Treasurer, Mrs. O. Broberg; Civic Beautification, Mrs. R. Fangrat; Membership, Mrs. B. Warych, Publicity, Mrs. R. Kozanecki; Books, Coupons, Courtesy, Mrs. V. Volpe; Golf Mill Representative; Mrs. H. Kloss; and Niles Days Representative, Mrs. R. Larson.

Garden Club members participated recently in the Bake Sale for the Niles Blue Baby. Beaming with pride are Mrs. C. Bobula who won a trophy for her beautifully decorated cake; Mrs. W. Leidner who won a trophy for her coffee cake; and Mrs. A. Zakowski who also received a trophy for her apple pie. Mrs. A. Leidner also won a Sunbeam Mix-Master on the drawing.

On the afternoon of April 12th, twenty-five members and friends met to tour Avon Corporation in Morton Grove. A most informative and pleasureable afternoon was spent by all.

Saturday, April 15th the members and husbands spent the evening at a Candlelight Scotch Bowling Party. The place of the event was Schaul's Bowl, 6309 W. Dempster.

An invitation to all residents of Niles is extended to attend our next meeting which will be held at Bunker Hill on April 20th at 7:45 P.M. The program for the evening will be a "Ceremics" presented by Mrs. R. Mueller. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. W. McEnerney, Mrs. O. Meyer, and Mrs. M. Larsen. The shadowbos arrangement will be made by Mrs. W. Leidner, and the horticulture specimen will be contributed by Mrs. D. Moriarity.

Good Housekeeping Is Good Fire Safety

A Fire Department belief that good housekeeping habits and fire safety are directly connected was graphically illustrated in a recent Niles fire.

According to Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, the fire started at the rear of a Niles store in a rubbish pile and within moments spread through a window, cracked by the intense heat, to the inside of the store.

"This proves," said Chief Hoelbl, "that fire hazards are found all over, both inside and outside of our homes and businesses."

Although the official clean-up week is still many weeks away, good housekeeping habits should be practiced all year long, he added. The following suggestions were listed as means of avoiding possible tragedy:

1. Remove all unnecessary litter, newspapers, and trash from your home or business as soon as possible.

2. Place the litter in suitable, and if possible, fireproof containers, until it can be picked up by the Public Works Department.

3. Keep the area around your house or garage free of twigs, papers and other material which can tempt the neighborhood youngsters with matches.

A few moments of your time, advised Chief Hoelbl, can avoid a lifetime of tragedy.

Harczak Leads

The distaff candidate, Mandy Honold, headed her ticket at 2 precincts.

When all the votes were in some of the winners wept while the losers walked tall. Long before the final count was in, Erich Buck, before leaving for his teaching assignment at Maine night school, told his disappointed workers about retaining your humor and losing with dignity. His running mates later in the evening went to the victory celebration of the ACT Party at Bunker Hill to extend their best wishes. They walked tall in face of their overwhelming defeat.

Meanwhile, the emotions of weeks of campaigning ended in an avalanche of tears for Diane Hanson, one of the major quarterbacks for the ACT group. When co-campaign manager announced the final totals, and gave a rousing victory speech, Diane sat quietly off to the side, tears rolling down her cheeks releasing the pent-up emotions of months of campaigning.

Employers Overload Grand Opening

Employers Overload Temporary Office Service will have a grand opening of its new quarters at 344 Lawrencewood Shopping Center, Oakton and Waukegan Road, Niles, Illinois, starting Monday, May 1st, through Saturday, May 6th, 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Women interested in temporary office work and learning about Employers Overload are invited for refreshments and gifts.

Miss Debbie Meyers, trained temporary service counsellor, who heads the operation, will be on hand for private consultations.

According to Miss Meyer, who has extensive background in this field, Employers Overload has been designed to serve specific job requirements. This entails actual training by Employers Overload prior to on-location activity and assures that workers are completely qualified for their duties, whether on long or short term assignments.

Some of the services offered include Secretaries, Transcribing Operators, Typists, Bookkeepers, Keypunchers, Office Machine Operators, Receptionists, Switchboard Operators and all General Clerks.

Working schedules and job locations are adjusted to fit the individual worker's requirements, and transportation to and from jobs will be provided if necessary.

A special bonus will be offered to women registering for job assignments with Employers Overload making them eligible to win a mink stole or colored television set in drawings held every three months. By registering during the week of Grand Opening, the women will be given five extra drawing coupons free.

Part of a nationwide organization which pioneered temporary office help, Employers Overload pays weekly and offers paid vacations. Hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
